

NXG G2+ Time Clock

Robust and flexible time collection

The NXG G2+ will revolutionize the way you collect attendance and labor data. With its intuitive touch screen interface and advanced features, the NXG G2+ offers a seamless and efficient experience for both employers and employees.

Plug-and-play simplicity, configurable features, and advanced technology, the NXG G2+ streamlines processes, reduces errors, and enhances employee satisfaction. By automating tasks and ensuring accurate data collection, you can save time, money, and resources. The NXG G2+ offers the power, flexibility, and ease of use you need to streamline your operations and achieve greater efficiency.

Key Benefits:

Guide employees through the clock-in/out process effortlessly with a user-friendly interface

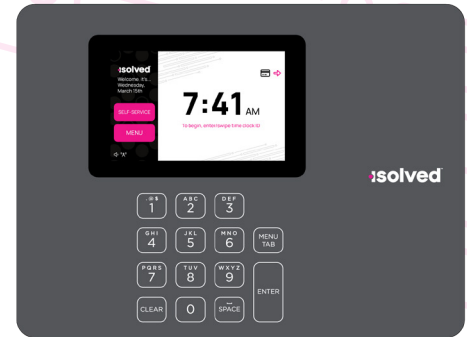

Ensure real-time data synchronization and automatic validation for accurate payroll and labor cost management

Adapt to your unique needs with customizable features and configurations

Eliminate manual entry and ensure up-to-date information with automatic payroll data transferring

Clock Specifications/Features:

- Experience the intuitive 4.3 inch LCD touch screen
- Enhance your employee experience with our modern capacitive backlit keypad
- Supports Ethernet, Cellular, and WiFi communications
- Supports finger scan, bar-code, magnetic stripe and proximity badges
- Two types of relays that can be scheduled on intervals:
  - Door Access Relays
  - Bell Relays
- Save back up punch data to a USB flash drive
- Supports quick punch, in/out, meal/break in/out, and labor collection, along with restricting labor collection to an approved list of jobs/tasks
- Supports schedule lockout, if the host software package supports it
- Collects Biometric Privacy Law consent and other attestations
- Provides support for multiple companies in one device

Contact us today to learn how we can help reduce turnover, boost engagement and achieve your business goals.

